MEMO ENDORSED

In re Petition of Pandora Media, Inc., 12 Civ. 8035 (DLC) related to U.S. v. Am. Soc'y of Composers, Authors and Publishers, 41 Civ. 1395 (DLC)

Dear Judge Cote:

We represent the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers ("ASCAP") in the above-captioned matter. I write on behalf of both parties and with Pandora's consent to follow up on our telephone conversation of November 21, 2013 and our letter of December 5, 2013.

As Your Honor requested during the November 21 call, the parties have prepared proposed redactions of their own confidential information, as well as information produced by third parties. While ASCAP and Pandora are prepared to submit proposed redactions to their respective confidential information today, counsel for the third parties have requested additional time to review the parties' filings and to confer with their clients. The third parties' redactions of their own information may also have ramifications for the parties' redactions, as ASCAP's and Pandora's submissions contain data from the third parties.

PAUL, WEISS, RIFKIND, WHARTON & GARRISON LLP

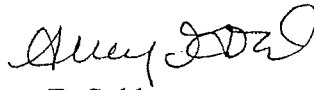

Honorable Denise Cote

To ensure consistency and in the interest of efficiency, we respectfully request a one-week extension of the deadline to file proposed redactions so that the third parties may make any necessary revisions to our proposed redactions. By that date, we will be able to file our respective materials in a form that would be most useful to the Court. Specifically, if acceptable, we propose to file a single, complete set of the pretrial filings, reflecting proposed redactions by ASCAP, Pandora and third parties, on December 20, 2013.

We appreciate the courtesy the Court has shown in allowing the parties time to meet and confer on this issue, and would be happy to supply any additional information the Court might require.

Respectfully submitted,

Amy E. Gold
